able cause to believe that said complaint is true, shall issue a search warrant to a sheriff, deputy sheriff, city marshal, chief of police, deputy marshal, police officer, or constable, commanding him to search the premises in which it is alleged that such opium, morphine, heroin, codeine, cannabis indica, cannabis sativa, or any other hypnotic drug or any salt or compound or preparation of said substances or any preparation containing the same is kept or deposited, and to seize and securely keep the same until final action, and to arrest the person or persons in whose possession it is found, together with all persons present, if any of the aforesaid substances is found, and to return forthwith the warrant, with his doings thereon, to a court or trial justice having jurisdiction in the place in which such substance is alleged to be kept or deposited."

Mattresses, Pillows, Cushions, and Similar Articles—Manufacture and Sale—Labeling. (Chap. 148, Act Apr. 8, 1915.)

SECTION 1. No person shall manufacture for purposes of sale, sell, offer or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any mattress, pillow, cushion, muff bed, quilt or similar article having a filling of hair, down, feathers, wool, cotton, silk floss or other material, unless there shall be plainly marked upon each such article, or upon a tag of some durable substance, sewed thereon, or otherwise securely attached thereto, a statement of the kind of material used for filling in the manufacture of such article, and, also, if the material has previously been used, the word "secondhand." If any such article or articles are inclosed in a bale, box, crate, or other receptacle, there shall be plainly marked upon such receptacle, or upon a durable tag securely attached thereto, a statement that the contents of the package are marked as required by this act. It shall be unlawful for any person except a purchaser at retail to remove or efface any marking upon any article or receptacle, or any tag attached thereto, under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. No person shall use, in the manufacture of any mattress, pillow, cushion, muff bed, quilt, or similar article for purposes of sale, or shall sell or offer or expose for sale, or have in possession for the purpose of such use or for sale, any material which has previously been used in or about a hospital, or on or about the person of anyone having an infectious or contagious disease, nor shall any person sell, or offer or expose for sale, any such articles containing materials which have previously been so used.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the State department of health, whenever there is reason to believe that any provision of this act is being violated, to cause an investigation to be made of any factory, shop, warehouse, store, or other place where it is believed that the act is being violated, and for this purpose any member of the said department, or any duly accredited representative thereof, shall have authority to enter any building or other place at all reasonable times. If, upon investigation, mattresses, pillows, cushions, muff beds, quilts or similar articles, or materials for use in the manufacture of the same, shall be found, which have been previously used in or about a hospital, or on or about the person of anyone having an infectious or contagious disease, such materials or articles, manufactured or in process of manufacture, shall be marked by the State department of health with labels bearing the word "unclean" in conspicuous letters, and the State department of health, with or without notice to the owner or supposed owner, may order the removal and destruction of the said materials or articles, or may make such other order relating to the said materials or articles as the circumstances of the case may require.

SEC. 4. The State department of health, or its duly authorized representative, whenever in the opinion of the department it is necessary to safeguard the public health, may post upon any building or part thereof containing such materials or articles, or from which the same have been removed, notice or warning of the danger of contagion or infection resulting from the violation of the provisions of this act, and may continue such notice upon the said premises until the same shall have been properly cleaned and disinfected. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove such notice or warning except by order of the State department of health.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of any police officer or member of any municipal board of health, or other city or town official, who has reason to believe that the provisions of this act have been or are being violated, to give notice thereof to the State department of health.

SEC. 6. Whoever manufactures for purposes of sale, sells, offers or exposes for sale, or has in his possession with intent to sell, any mattress, pillow, cushion, muff bed, quilt, or similar article having a filling of hair, down, feathers, wool, cotton, silk floss, or other material which is not marked in accordance with the provisions of this act, or whoever uses in the manufacture of any of the said articles materials previously used in or about a hospital, or upon or about the person of anyone having an infectious or contagious disease, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Whoever removes or effaces any marking upon any article or receptacle or any tag attached thereto, or any notice or warning posted upon any premises by the State department of health under the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $50 for each offense.
